

Career Opportunity
Internal/External
Case Manager, Housing First
Full-time, Indeterminate

It is the Mission of Tungasuvvingat Inuit (TI) to broadly provide Inuit-specific programs that contribute to the health and wellbeing of Inuit and to encourage and support similar programs for Inuit across the country.

With over 30 years of highly successful experience in crafting the design, development and delivery of a wide range of effective, client-centered services, TI continues to deliver quality programs and services that directly benefit our growing urban Inuit population.

Role Summary

The Case Manager, Housing First (CMHF) provides cultural support in tandem with the Housing First Cultural Support Worker (HFCSW), providing direct support to individuals or families that have been housed and works with the HFCSW and the client to create an individualized service plan that will help them achieve housing and life stability.

The CMHF serves clients who are at different stages of housing stability:

- individuals who are newly housed (approximately 3 months or less),
- individuals who have been housed approximately 4-9 months, and
- individuals who have been housed more than 9 months.

The goal of the program is to house people, and then support them. The evidence is clear that people achieve better long-term housing outcomes and achieve a more positive quality of life when this is the sequence of service. Once housed, individuals may benefit from life skills training, budgeting classes, skills upgrading, addiction treatment, and cultural practices that meet the individual's needs.
